This Kaleidoscope Career: How Women Build Unconventional Careers Through Curiosity and Resilience Podcast & Media

Like the colored glass in a kaleidoscope, a woman's skills, talent, experience and passions often shift and turn to create new career pictures.

Since Sept. 2024, Helen has interviewed top women in the C-suite, founders, innovators, journalists, chefs, educators, authors, nonprofit & public service and thought leaders who inspire. On mike and in print, we celebrate the richness of their careers, their challenges, takeaways, and their amazing life stories.

About Helen Jonsen

Helen is the founder & chief storyteller of helen jonsen media. As a seasoned journalist across platforms, Helen has interviewed some of the world's bold-faced names and has led the charge for media to recognize women's leadership and advancement. She is a speaker & frequent media guest.
